

Hello everybody,

are you doing good? Here in Bavaria we enjoy a sunny spring and knit diligently airy and cheerful shawls for balmy summer evenings.

"Painted Waves" by Kieran Foley was knitted from one of our new ones

WOLLMEISEN ROLLS - the tart without remorse

I think my new Wollmeisen Rolls look so delicious and are almost a pity to unpack. But you should not think that way, especially if you look at "Painted Waves". This shawl is magical, but there are so many more projects to knit from.

The Wollmeisen Rolls are entangled "Blankets", where you can start knitting immediately and for the first time achieve a very long color gradient with the intense Wollmeise colors. The weight of the Wollmeisen Rolls is 150 grams, so much as a complete strand (Pure) and therefore sufficient for a pretty project.

Remember, only two threads you have to sew, is not that wonderful?

Unfortunately, we can only dye very small quantities of the Rolls. Please be patient, we continue to color the Wollmeisen Rolls, also in other colors.

The Wollmeisen Rolls will get a special category on our website under Specials. There you can admire them even before the sales start on 01. June 2018.

The Wollmeisen birdies, my little darlings:

Our birdies are no mayflies, but firmly included in the assortment.

Our birdies in Twin are already in the starting blocks and will arrive from the 18th of May 2018 !!!

We underestimated how long the winding takes. Sorry that we could not react faster with replenishment. It does not stay with the existing station wagon, I always think of new variations. I especially like color gradients in the rainbow, whether in muted or in brilliant colors. What do you all mean? We are always open to suggestions.

The delicate harmonistas - delicate colors for tender feelings:

The delicate harmonistas continue, even in other qualities. This world has many lovers and so do we, so there should be something for every taste. I think quite a lot of people know that I'm not that big a fan of pastels, but I love playing with colors and completely underestimated the wealth of possibilities. Giulietta and Romeo, the balcony, are exactly mine.

With all the tits colors you could always achieve color gradients, slowly we are completely 9.

Last but not least, our event, the upcoming Summer Sale, with meetings, exchanges and enjoyments:

I'm looking forward to seeing many familiar faces again and getting to know new ones. I am especially happy to welcome Nicolor. Nico will once again have a booth where you'll be able to scrutinize, touch, feel, and maybe try their incredible designs (but you'll have to ask them yourself).

We also have Happy Day on the last day of sale with another price reduction. The prices are stable since 2016! Last year was a one-time "slip-up" as we had to vacate our warehouse for refurbishment.

So it remains cheap to visit our sale.

Maybe we see us? I would be glad!
