It's the year 2010 - um no!

But more or less.

2010 was the year in which many of our Wollmeise lovers a wonderful

- NO, THE MOST BEAUTIFUL calendars had hung on your walls far and wide.

A calendar that couldn't be more exciting.

"Wild screeching of the ladies' world spread. The store was overrun, waves of women, who fell unconscious from the excitement.

It was the year of the Rohrspatz & Wollmeise Calendar. "

Packed with men in lascivious poses and how could it be otherwise ...

covered with wool and knitwear from R&W.

The Pirelli calendar could wrap up this year!

Now come!

2021 and 2010

have the same calendar.

Which does mean: YOU CAN GET IT AGAIN!

Yes, right, we will have it back in our online shop soon and we hope that this year the rush of all rushes in the ladies' world!

The total net income from the sale of our calendar are

We want to celebrate with you and give you the 3 percent further.

SHOPPED & SAVE!

Sharing is caring

From knitter for knitter! There will soon be a corner with handicraft books. These books are available to EVERYONE if they leave a discarded book instead. What the one no longer needs could be the treasure at the end of the rainbow for the other. Good to know: You don't have an exchange book with you? No problem - the object of your desire can be taken for a fixed price of 5 €.

Swaps as much as possible!

One is still going!

You already know our Wollmeise Biennale sets. They were sold out very quickly and have long been involved in many of them. Don't forget: The Wollmeise Biennale will only run until 07/15/2020. Submit your final projects and take the chance of a fantastic win!

How about if the Biennale Kit were available in jewel tones?

YES YES YES!
